

WORKING STUDENT COMMUNICATION (M/F/D) AT GEA GROUP AG

GEA is one of the largest suppliers for the food and beverage processing industry and a wide range of other process industries. Approximately 18,000 employees in more than 60 countries contribute significantly to GEA's success – come and join them! We offer interesting and challenging tasks, a positive working environment in international teams and opportunities for personal development and growth in a global company.

Your responsibilities and tasks:

You don't just want to observe – you want to contribute? You enjoy making complex IT topics understandable and engaging? Then we'd love to meet you!

At our corporate headquarters, you'll join an international IT team that thrives on innovation – and is looking for a creative communicator like you to help make our internal IT initiatives shine.

🌐 Global IT Communication:

You'll become the voice of our IT – whether through intranet posts, newsletters, or presentations. You'll manage our communication channels, craft clear messages, and collaborate with colleagues around the world – all the way up to IT leadership.

📢 Campaigns That Make an Impact:

You'll help plan and support creative communication campaigns that put IT projects in the spotlight. You'll analyze what resonates and make sure the right messages reach the right people at the right time.

🎨 Content Creation That Stands Out:

From sharp copy to visual storytelling and short videos – you'll create content that brings our topics to life. Your mission: make IT accessible and engaging, without the jargon.

🎉 Events That Connect:

From hackathons to community events – you'll support planning, execution, and content creation (e.g., short videos).

You'll bring not only organizational skills but also a feel for storytelling and community building. 🔗 Link to our event last year.

Your profile and qualifications:

✅ What You Bring:

- You're enrolled as a student – ideally in communication, media, IT, or a related field (but it's not a must..)
- You have a strong sense for language (in both German and English) and can explain technical topics clearly
- You're a team player, creative, and ready to take on responsibility
- Experience with tools like PowerPoint, SharePoint, ChatGPT or video editing? Great – but not a must!

🎯 Why Join Us:

- Real-world experience: Work on real projects and gain deep insights into the IT world of a global company
- Flexibility: We adapt your working hours to your study schedule
- Team spirit: Join a supportive, open-minded team that encourages and inspires you
- Growth: Develop your communication skills and learn new tools and processes along the way
